Lesson 19

A Pleasant Home

- Home is the most important place for a person. There is no place like home.
- We should always try to maintain a good relationship between the family members.
- Each family member has their responsibilities.
- We should help each other in our daily activities.
- Then we can have a peaceful environment at home.

Activity

Draw a picture of your family working in harmony with each other in the home or the garden.
