

BUDDHISM

Dear children,

- Read 'Lesson 15' (page no. 73 – 76) in your Buddhism textbook.
- Copy down the questions given in the yellow colour box in your Buddhism Writing Book and answer the questions.
- After doing the exercise, please draw or paste a suitable picture for the lesson.

Taking Care of Elders

- Anyone who is older, knowledgeable and has more experience than us is an ELDER.
- Jataka stories like Saalikedara (සාලිකේදාර), Tittira (තිත්තිර) and Sama (සාම) show us the importance of taking care of elders.
- We should take care of our elders and accept their advices.

Exercise

- 1) As mentioned in the lesson who are elders?
- 2) What do our parents do for us?
- 3) Mention the two Jathaka stories where the Buddha preached about taking care of elders.
- 4) To make our lives better what do we have to do?
