

- Dear children, please copy down the following note given in the yellow box in your English Essay Book along with the topic of the lesson.

Transportation

Transportation is movement of people and goods from one location to another. The development of transport during the stages of history was very slow and difficult. At first people used animals to transport like camels and donkeys. After vehicles and boats were invented, people used them to transport faster and easier than before.

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

Today’s transportation has seen a significant leap forward, transforming the world into a small village. There is a huge difference that helps you spend a safe and comfortable travel. Therefore, it is great that we are living in this present time and enjoy all these convenient means of transportation.